

GOING TO THE FAIR

Holland Americans of This City
Planning an Excursion.

BIG MEETING LAST NIGHT

They Will Assist in the Celebration of Netherlands Day August 31,
Queen Wilhelmina's Birthday.

A large meeting of Holland Americans was held in the home John Stetse's office last night, to make preliminary arrangements for taking an excursion party of their countrymen to the world's fair August 30.

Mr. Stetse was elected chairman, and Herman Hogenholtz acted as secretary. August 31 will be Netherlands Day at the fair, in honor of the birthday of the queen of the Netherlands, and it is expected that a number of Hollanders from this city and the western part of the state will attend. The Holland residents of the city of Holland and 500 from that section have already bought tickets for transportation to Chicago. Persons in this city who are planning an excursion fare will go by rail if satisfactory rates can be obtained from the railroad companies. It is hoped 1,000 persons will go in the party and an effort will be made to get that number. Committees were appointed last night to secure propositions from the railroad companies and correspond with persons in Chicago relative to accommodations for the party there. A chorus composed of the best local singers will be formed to assist in the musical part of the program on that day. The following committees were appointed:

Transportation—John Stetse, J. A. S. Verder and James Van Beulen. Correspondence—James Van Derven, Herman Hogenholtz and S. W. Weis. Music—The Rev. F. W. N. Hogenholtz. Treasurer—J. A. S. Verder. Another meeting will be held next Friday night to hear reports of the committee.

Identified the Remains

John Lucy, a Nashville banker, arrived in the city yesterday morning and identified the remains of the man who was killed Thursday night by a Michigan Central train a short distance east of Calaisia as those of his brother, L. O. Harry. The unfortunate man was one of the excursion party to Ottawa Beach, and it is supposed he fell from the rear platform of the train where he was seen sitting by some of the excursionists when near Calaisia. He was a farmer, unmarried, and about 40 years old, and lived six miles out from Hastings. The body was taken to Nashville last evening. Coroner Loucks' jury viewed the remains at Underaker Macon's office, and the inquest was adjourned until this morning.

Sold for Improvement Taxes.

A sale of real estate near Fifth avenue and Madison avenue for the first assessment on the Hall street and Madison and Madison roll was held by the city marshal yesterday morning. Many of the tax-payers had an idea that they had a choice of paying an assessment when it was due or they could wait until the last assessment is due and pay all they were taxed in one payment. Many of the parcels were bid in by the property owners, and most of the balance were bid in by the city.

Has Work in the County.

D. P. Clay left notice with the Charley society yesterday that he wishes to have men and women to work on his dairy farm near Newaygo. He wishes to get persons who know how to milk and take care of cows, as well as persons who can do work in a dairy building. Any one out of a job who can do this work may leave their names with the society.
